Critical Discourses on Islamophobia: Symbols, Images and Representations

Friday April 20th, 2012

Keynote: 9:30 -10:30am
A Global Perspective on Constructing Muslim Otherness
Professor Tariq Ramadan, Prof. of Contemporary Islamic Studies, Oxford University

Panel 1 -10:30am-12:15 PM
Images and Representation of Islam and Muslims
Chair: Dr. Mahan Mirza, Zaytuna College

Panel 2 - 2:00- 3:45 PM
Europe’s Islamophobia: Contested Identities, Immigration and Racism
Chair: Prof. Ramon Grosfoguel, Ethnic Studies Department, UC Berkeley

Panel 3 - 4:00 - 5:45 PM
Race, Racism and Discourses of Otherness
Chair: Prof. Marianne Farina, Dominican School of Philosophy and Theology, GTU

Saturday April 21st, 2012

Panel 4 - 10:30 AM - 12:30 PM
Security Structures and Civil Rights: Reversing the Trend!
Chair: Prof. Munir Jiwa, Center for Islamic Studies, GTU

Panel 5 - 1:30 PM – 2:45 PM
Theoretical Framing of Islamophobia and Blind Spots
Chair: Dr. Haem Bazian, IRDP, UC Berkeley and Zaytuna College

Panel 6 - 3:00 PM – 4:45 PM
Islamophobia Implications on the Otherized Subjects
Chair: Dr. Mahan Mirza, Zaytuna College

Closing Remarks: 5:00 PM - 5:30 PM
Dr. Haem Bazian, IRDP, UC Berkeley and Zaytuna College

co-sponsored by
Islamophobia Research and Documentation Project of the Center for Race and Gender
University of California, Berkeley, Center for Islamic Studies - Graduate Theological Union
Arab and Muslim Ethnicities and Diasporas Initiative (AMED), SFSU - Zaytuna College
Council on American Islamic Relations (CAIR) - American Cultures Engaged Scholarship (ACES)
Berkeley’s Institute of International Studies - Boalt Muslim Student Association

crg.berkeley.edu